Yes sir. For sure. And it will help with keeping <input type="text"/> on task. He often times needs my foot in his ass to be timely. Also, I didn't see your vm about shit head calling about turning himself in. Me and all the boys were out last night hitting all the hot spots you told me about hoping to run into him. If he does turn himself in at your department I'd sure like to have a chat with him and encourage him to relocate out of Whitefish.

I can live with that. I'd like to have him in an interview room for about 15 mins so I can explain to him the error of his ways and gently persuade him to pack his shit and leave. I will get the statement to you today.
